ANDREW DUBUQUE WINS 2ND CAREER CIRCUIT RING

Dubuque parlayed a work trip into a five-figure score.

21 March, 2019 (Las Vegas, Nev.) – Andrew Dubuque became the first ring winner at the 2019 WSOP Circuit stop at Bally's, finishing first in Event #1: \$250 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo. This is Dubuque's second Circuit ring, and he earned $10,045 for the victory.

"I feel great," he said after securing his victory. "I'm actually here for a conference, and I was able to play some poker afterwards."

The end phase of the tournament was remarkably quick, even for a turbo event. "It's probably the fastest heads-up I've ever played," Dubuque said. On the final hand, he and Kevin Hoffman (who would finish runner up) both flopped top two pair. Dubuque had the better two pair, and it held up.
