Circuit regular loves Pot-Limit Omaha and learned to play it in home games.

Carl Masters topped a field of 146 entries in Event #7: $600 Pot-Limit Omaha, good for $21,054. This is his 3rd career World Series of Poker Circuit ring, all won during this season. "It feels great. I've only been playing PLO for a couple of years – I really love it," said Masters.

The newly crowned three-time champion said his poker hero is Circuit regular Blake Whittington. "I attribute a lot of my success to the people that I play with everyday at home, because it just gets you ready for anything," explained Masters. Heads-up play went on for a while, and at one point Masters had 90% of the chips in play. His opponent, Gabriel Ramos, battled back before Masters eventually sealed the deal. "I just wanna thank God for this opportunity to do what I love to do," said a humble Masters.
