AARON MCEVOY WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING OF THE WEEK

McEvoy came to New Orleans for his birthday and cashed for $62,946 across five events!

Aaron McEvoy takes down Event #13: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Double Stack for $16,303 and his 2nd career Circuit ring. Both rings were won this week at Harrah's New Orleans, also earning him the title of Casino Champion. The day before he won his first ring was his birthday – May 8th. "It was just sort of one day at a time. Coming in, playing just Thursday through Sunday. I kind of just rode this high – rode the heater."

McEvoy recently moved to Austin, Texas for his girlfriend's job and he hasn't looked for one himself as yet. "I don't know what's going to happen from here, but I already have the trip to Vegas planned. Hopefully the bracelet with the two rings and go back and play the Main." He is a Nuclear Physicist and is working on some projects as well. "I have a couple of ideas for an invention that I'm interested in developing, so this will definitely help me kick that off. So I've gotta just take a little bit of time, cool off. I've got a vacation planned after this, then it's off to Vegas."
