MICHAEL SANDERS LOGS NLHE SINGLE-DAY VICTORY

Arkansas' Sanders earns fourth career Circuit ring in Event #11 triumph

Most poker players are quite unhappy to have busted out of any series' main event, but for Michael Sanders, things turned out alright. Sanders, 34, a regional pro from Russellville, Arkansas, busted from Day 1A in Event #10 (the Tunica main event), just in time to late-register in Event #11, the fast-paced $250 no-limit hold'em double stack tourney that began in late afternoon. The end result was a fourth career Circuit ring for Sanders, plus a $13,779 payday.

And there's a bonus: Sanders was already planning on re-entering the ongoing main event by playing in Saturday's Day 1B starting flight. So he gets to do that while already having a ring victory under his belt and a healthy bankroll boost in his wallet.

Sanders enjoyed a relatively smooth run to the win, excepting a major setback just outside the final table when he lost a race for most of his stack. Sanders quickly regained those chips, however, and moved into the lead soon after, never in danger of busting again.
