MORTON DAVIS WINS 1st WSOP CIRCUIT RING AT CHOCTAW

Houston Poker Dealer claims $17,212 and WSOP Gold Ring

Morton Davis has just captured World Series of Poker gold at the Choctaw Circuit series. The 47-year-old outlasted 217 players in Event #3: $400 Congress (5-Card Pot-Limit Omaha Hi-Lo) to win his first WSOP gold ring.

Davis came into Day 2 near the bottom of the chip counts with just under 17 big blinds. After numerous double-ups, the professional poker dealer from Lions Poker Palace found himself 3rd in chips heading into the marathon of a Final Table, which lasted nearly 11 hours. The tournament was at a deadlock when three-handed play was reached. It was Day 1 chipleader Brian Lee, runner-up finisher Jacob Seale and our champion who were at the stand still. The three rotated chips for the better part of the evening but it was the Houston resident Davis who came out on top.

The 58th-finisher in Event #1 had nothing but good things to say about this Circuit stop and the expansion of Pot-Limit Omaha.

“I like it here, a lot of action and a good field... I like Congress, it’s a good game and I’ve always been an Omaha player my whole life, I enjoy it. I’m glad to see the game is growing.”
