

WSOP CIRCUIT 2019-20 EVENT REPORT

Circuit Stop:	Seminole Coconut Creek	Date:	26 September 2019
Event:	No-Limit Hold'em	Entries:	711
Buy-in:	$400	Prizepool:	$234,630

J.P. KOLB IS THE CHAMPION OF THE MONSTER STACK

He takes home his first Circuit ring and $43,742.

J.P. Kolb just grabbed his first Circuit ring after besting a field of 711 players in Event #6: $400 Monster Stack. With multiple final tables on his resume, Kolb got extremely close to winning a ring multiple times, and today, he finally breaks through to claim the title.

“I feel pretty good. I’ve had a lot of seconds and thirds. Everything except for the win so it felt really good to get the win. All my friends tell me that I’m the best player they know without jewelry. Now I finally have jewelry so I don’t have to listen to that anymore.”

Kolb started the final table with an average stack and he put up a good fight to win the tournament.

“I didn’t have a big run at the final table. I played rather conservative and won some decent pots here and there just to actually stay. Even when there were three of us left, I only had 3 million. It was an uphill battle.”

When the heads-up portion of play started, Matthew Yorra had a two to 1 chip lead, but that quickly changed.

“I ran good the first hand of heads-up. I ended up flopping a straight and he ended up shoving, that kind of changed the whole complexity of the tournament.”

Kolb collected $43,742, his biggest recorded cash, and will be looking to add another big score to his resume this stop.
