CHRISTOPHER BUGGS WINS FIRST CIRCUIT RING IN FIRST CIRCUIT CASH

Christopher Buggs outmatched 123 opponents in Event #11: $250 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo to earn his first Circuit ring and the top prize of $6,702.

Buggs started the final table with a healthy stack and he stood his ground as one of the big stacks during most of the final table.

"I was just patient. I gradually worked my way up. I stayed very patient and waited for hands. I even threw away some quality hands but I wasn't feeling the cards coming my way, so I just waited around till I was able to hit."

When the heads-up portion of play started, Carlo Rodriguez had the bigger stack but Buggs managed to turn things around.

"I guess he sensed that I was tight, so he started becoming more aggressive, and I was able to take advantage of that a lot."

Buggs' victory marks his first WSOP Circuit cash, and he will be looking to add more to his WSOP resume.
