MAX WIOSNA WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 4

Poker dealer and part-time poker player takes down the Turbo at Foxwoods

The winner of Event 4 is Max Wiosna for $23,664 and his first career World Series of Poker Circuit ring. He topped a field of 322 entries to take the biggest share of the $106,260 prize pool. The poker dealer from Vernon only plays five to ten tournaments per year and called his shot today.

"Its kinda surreal. I work a lot at MGM Springfield, so I don't get a lot of time to play," explained Wiosna. He doesn't have aspirations to play poker for a living, but takes the game seriously nonetheless. "I just do it for fun. I used to try to have too much fun, and it kinda hurt my bankroll," laughed Wiosna.

The newly crowned champion got into poker by way of house games, and is now in the winners' circle. Working in the industry as a poker dealer has certainly helped his game. "I needed a job and the casino was opening up last August, so I just decided to take the class and see where it would go."
