MICHAEL ZAINO TAKES DOWN EVENT 5 AT FOXWOODS

Zaino doubles his career earnings and wins his first Circuit ring

Michael Zaino took his final table chip lead and went wire-to-wire to win his first ever World Series of Poker Circuit ring in Event #5: $600 No-Limit Hold'em. The newly crowned champion took home $21,050, doubling his overall career earnings.

The final table came together quickly on Day 2 after 10 players came back on the final table bubble. Zaino held the chip lead and never looked back. The Wethersfield resident defeated Stephen Friedrich heads up and denied Andrew Lauer his fourth Circuit ring.
