LUKE GRAHAM WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 6

Graham wins his second ring at Foxwoods after six years

A field of 237 entries has dwindled down to one player standing – Luke Graham. He earned himself $18,364, the biggest chunk of the $78,210 prize pool in this one day event. Graham beat Sunkee Lee heads up for the title and his second career World Series of Poker Circuit ring.

“It feels great,” smiled Graham. He played a big pot with Lee where he rivered a flush to take a commanding lead and never looked back.

Poker has gotten tougher over the years, and Graham credits his aggressive play when explaining how he has stayed competitive. “Playing a lot more hands than I used to,” said Graham.
