MARK AMARAL WINS FINAL EVENT AT FOXWOODS

Amaral came to rail his friend on the Main Event final table and won a ring in the process

It was the last day of the Foxwoods Circuit stop and Mark Amaral decided to rail his friend Justin Carey to victory in the Main Event. He entered the final tournament, Event 13, and ended up taking it down for $9,523, his biggest score and first ever victory and Circuit ring.

"It feels good – pretty good," smiled Amaral. He mostly plays cash games to build his bankroll, but plays the odd tournament here and there. "I've wanted to get more into tournaments, but I really just grind cash. I've probably played seven and cashed five of them – but nothing deep."

The poker player from Middleton, MA has been playing the game for a long time. "I've been playing all my life. I went to school for engineering – didn't like it. I got into construction. I was winning money at poker, didn't wanna be outside in the cold anymore so I just started playing poker full time," explained Amaral.
