GEDIMINAS USELIS WINS HIGH ROLLER FOR 1ST RING

Lithuanian Poker Pro takes down inaugural $2,200 High Roller at Choctaw Durant.

The first ever $2,200 High Roller at Choctaw Durant has come to an end after two days of play, and Gediminas Uselis has become the latest World Series of Poker Circuit winner after topping a field of 108 players, emerging victorious for his first ring.

Uselis overcame a tough line-up of runners to take home the $60,710 first-place prize, along with his first new WSOP Circuit ring.

"It feels great to win a ring," said Uselis after his victory, one that was a rocky road.

Uselis came into the final day in the middle of the pack holding on to a stack with less than 100,000 for majority of the day. He entered the final table last in chips with 69,000 but managed to spike key double-ups that managed him to climb to the top as he eliminated five of the final eight players.

The win adds to a resume that already had over $250,000 in career earnings.

"I got here Wednesday and busted the $600 but saved my luck for this one," said Uselis jokingly after the victory.
