IRIS ANGELERI WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 2

Realtor from Kelseyville wins another ring in Lake Tahoe

Another stacked final table in Lake Tahoe meant another formidable battle for this stop's second winner. This time it was Iris Angeleri who was victorious in Event #2, earning her second World Series of Poker Circuit ring and $15,947. Angeleri's last ring came in the 2013/2014 WSOP Circuit season.

Angeleri had her supportive husband, Robert, on the rail and before this win, the two of them had one Circuit ring each. "We're always back and forth on who has the better record," laughed Angeleri.

The two-time champion is a realtor by day but is still very much consistently on the poker grind. "I play as much as I can here and there between work. I just try to study when I can and play online. I study as much as I can. Just blogs online, videos, YouTube and Instagram."
