ADAM OWEN WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING IN LAKE TAHOE

Poker pro from the UK defends his title in Event #3

After a dominating performance, Adam Owen has defended his title in Event #3 in Lake Tahoe, earning his second career World Series of Poker Circuit ring and $22,380. Owen held a commanding lead at the end of Day 1 and never looked back.

"I just had the best hand a lot," laughed Owen. "The guys on my left were pretty aggressive – they made it pretty tough. I was just winning all-ins basically."

The poker pro from the United Kingdom has been racking up a lot of wins across the pond lately. "The last couple of years I've spent a little more time here (United States), Mexico and Canada," said Owen. He has accumulated almost $3.5 million in live career earnings, and now has 11 recorded wins.

"It feels very cool. The trophy is always up top as well as the money, so you're always cheering for first place. It does feel nice to win stuff and have your friends watching," smiled Owen.
