JASTHI KUMAR WINS 3RD CIRCUIT RING IN LAKE TAHOE

Kumar gave up a 10-to-1 chip lead heads up and battled back to victory in Event #4

Event #4 just wrapped up after an epic heads-up battle, leaving Jasthi Kumar as the last player standing. Kumar earned $11,328 for the win, but more importantly he won his third career World Series of Poker Circuit ring.

Sergio Vargas came back from a 10-to-1 deficit during heads-up play. "He was behind every single time he was all in and he won all four times," laughed a relieved Kumar. "From the time we were in the money it was a smooth ride, but before that I was struggling. It feels great – really great. A win is a win."

Kumar is a recreational player but makes his rounds near home, playing whenever he gets a chance. "Those (trophies and rings) are more important to me, otherwise I wouldn't play these tournaments. I would like to play bigger tournaments, but I cannot take off from work."
