VINNIE LAVIA WINS 1ST TOURNAMENT IN LAKE TAHOE

Police officer from Scottsdale booked his third career tournament cash in Event #12

After 10 hours of play, Vinnie Lavia booked his first career tournament win in Event #12 at Harvey's Lake Tahoe. "It feels wonderful. It's a lot of hard work out here today. This is only my third World Series of Poker tournament," smiled a proud Lavia. The newly crowned champion pocketed $14,018 for his third cash.

Lavia is a police officer by day and doesn't play much poker. "Mostly tournaments, sometimes cash games. I never win, but it's still fun. It's entertaining," laughed Lavia.

In what is clearly a proud moment for the recreational player from Scottsdale, Lavia is excited to sport his new hardware. "It's pretty cool. I'm gonna make sure I wear it everyday. Show it off. Make sure everyone knows I'm a poker champion."
