HARLEY WILMOT WINS 2ND RING OF THE WEEK

77 year-old poker pro from Coleville wins his first ever tournament and biggest career cash

In the very last event of the World Series of Poker Circuit stop at Harvey's Lake Tahoe, Harley Wilmot topped a field of 191 entries to take the title and $15,694. Wilmot won the Seniors I event last week for $13,387 and defeated a field of 294 entries, making this his second WSOP Circuit ring.

"This is fun, but the first one (ring) was the best one," explained Wilmot. He has gone deep in a handful of seniors events prior to his win last week, and he finally sealed the deal. "To finally get it off my back – it was fun."

"I went into service when I was 17 and that's when I started playing poker. Texas Hold'em wasn't even heard of. Five card draw or stud – that was the big thing," said Wilmot. After 60 years of playing poker, Wilmot was able to secure his first and second wins in Lake Tahoe, bringing his live earnings to over $70,000. This is also his biggest career cash.
