Seth Frederici Takes Wins WSOP Circuit Gold Ring in His First Circuit Event

Seth Frederici tops 79 player field in $400 No-Limit Hold'em

Seth Frederici has come out on top of a 79 player field in Event 11: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo for $8,068 in the Circuit event he has ever played at Horseshoe Casino, Southern Indiana.

Coming to the final table in the middle of the pack with 116,000 he wasted no time building his chips, taking preflop gamble with ace-jack against two opponents who had pocket nines and pocket sevens. Winning this hand torpedoed his stack up to almost catch up to the dominating chipleader Anthony Allison who started the final table with 405,000.

Final table action happened fast, with Frederici and Allison making it heads up after only 45-minutes and it only took a few hands before Frederici had eliminated Allison in second place, earning his WSOP Circuit gold ring and the 50 points towards the 2020 Global Casino Championship.

Frederici normally plays the $200 tournaments at his local casino but came to town with his friend Tim Garles to play the Circuit at Horseshoe, who happened to win his first WSOP Circuit gold ring only hours before, taking home $11,057.

The Des Moines, IA native wasn't planning to stay the full weekend in Indiana, but may have a change of plans, "I am going to play the Main Event now, and I may just have to miss my flight on Sunday if I make Day 2," He said enthusiastically.
