LEIF FORCE WINS MONSTER STACK AND 3RD RING

Force came back from 1/5th of a big blind to win another ring at Harrah's Cherokee

Leif Force is the latest winner at Harrah's Cherokee after taking down the $400 No-Limit Hold'em Monster Stack for $97,676 and his third career World Series of Poker Circuit ring, in addition to his gold bracelet. "It feels so great. I'm so excited about it!" exclaimed Force.

Force made an epic comeback after being down to 1/5th of a big blind earlier in the day. "I lost tens versus ace-ten to get down to 10,000 in chips when the big blind was 50,000. I had just gotten through the blinds, so I waited maybe four hands and went all in and doubled up the next four hands in a row and was up to 500,000 right away," explained Force. The rest is history as he came into the table with a healthy stack and spun it up to victory.

Now that Force has a gold bracelet and a few rings, he commented on what might be the next big achievement in his poker career. "I don't really go for any milestones. I love to play," said Force. "I've been playing since when I was home schooled. I learned math through poker. I was playing blackjack at age two."
