TODD MERCER WINS TWO RINGS IN FOUR DAYS

Mercer won his 3rd career WSOP Circuit ring at Harrah's Cherokee

Another day, another win for Elon, North Carolina's Todd Mercer. The now three-time World Series of Poker Circuit ring winner topped a field of 267 entries to win $62,282. This is his second ring in four days after he took down Event #4 for $42,907 and over $100,000 across the two events.

"It feels amazing. Amazing. Totally amazing," smiled an emotional Mercer. "I came in as chip leader. It was definitely a tough final table having Michael Wang to my left. He straight played position the whole final table. He's very calculated in his decisions – a great poker player. He was definitely, to me, the toughest opponent at the table," explained Mercer.

Mercer was clearly emotional over winning yet another ring, and was supported by yet another massive rail. "I'm very thankful and blessed. Again, I thank the wife for all her support and family and friends that railed me."
