TAYLOR WILLIAMS WINS 1ST RING AT CHEROKEE

Logistics manager from Winston Salem wins his first live tournament

Event #11: $400 No-Limit Hold'em wrapped up in the late hours of Friday night and it was Taylor Williams who took the title. He topped a field of 350 entries to win $25,184 and his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring. "It's great. It's been a long time coming. I've been coming up here for a number of years grinding. I fired a lot of bullets this week and it's the only one that got through," explained Williams.

While this is not Williams' career, he certainly still takes the game seriously. "I have a full-time job, but I supplement my income with this," said Williams. The 33-year-old made a final table 10 years ago and finally feels like a weight has been lifted after playing poker for 12 years.

Poker has been getting tougher with the addition of many training sites and solvers. Williams has taken his own path though. "Just putting the time in alone, studying hand histories with friends. I spend a lot of time on forums, on Reddit, just reading, studying, talking. Basic stuff. I don't do anything special."
