JUSTIN CHAUVIN WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING AT THE BIKE

Cash game pro from Fountain Valley wins 2nd ring in three months

Justin Chauvin is the latest winner at The Bicycle Casino, topping a field of 63 entries in Event #3: $400 No-Limit Hold'em to win his second career World Series of Poker Circuit ring and $6,850. "It feels great. I didn't really have very many chips for most of the time – it all just kind of happened at once. It's a good feeling," said Chauvin.

The poker professional from Fountain Valley has been playing poker since he was in high school, but decided to make this career not too long ago. "About two and a half years ago. I moved to LA with friends and thought I'd give it a shot. I used to play only tournaments about 10 years ago, and now I play almost only cash games. But I mix it up once in a while and I've done pretty well lately."

Chauvin explained that winning two rings is by far his best accomplishment in poker, and wouldn't mind getting his face up on one of the banners at The Bicycle Casino. "Just getting better and doing my best" is the two-time Circuit champion's main focus right now.
