SEAN YU WINS 8th CIRCUIT RING AT THE BIKE

Local legend and WSOP bracelet winner has won 3 out of 8 Circuit rings on his home turf

After two days of play, Sean Yu has done it again – for the eighth time in fact. Yu won Event #6: $600 10-Game Mix for $10,200 and his eighth career World Series of Poker Circuit ring, in addition to his gold WSOP bracelet. “It feels pretty good. Especially at The Bike here at my home casino,” smiled Yu. He has now won three out of eight Circuit rings on his home turf.

“The money first – it drives me. But having a ring validates my hard work that I put into the game. Anytime I ship a ring it feels so good,” said Yu. He only started playing ring events in 2014, so the steady flow of wins has been quite consistent for the local poker pro. “I’m very fortunate, you know,” said a humble Yu.

The eight-time Circuit champion has rings and bracelets, but he still has his a couple of more goals he’d like to achieve in his career. “One is to win a bracelet in a mixed event during the summer, and the other is a million-dollar score,” laughed Yu.
