MONSTER STACK VICTORY GOES TO JUSTIN BREVIK

Justin Brevik scores debut gold ring with first-ever WSOP cash.

Justin Brevik became the newest member of the World Series of Poker gold ring club by taking down Event #2: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Monster Stack at the Hard Rock Tulsa Circuit. The tournament took two days to complete and encompassed a total of 208 entries.

Day 1 of the Monster Stack played through a grueling 12 hours of poker. Brevik, along with nine others, were the only ones standing at the end of Level 24, leaving off one spot away from an official final table.

"Yesterday was a real long grind. Me and Chuckie got into last night, head-to-head, and we kind of joked about making the final table and playing heads up," said Brevik.

On Day 2, a final table was swiftly reached. Among the nine finalists was Chuck Chadwick, and sure enough, Chadwick and Brevik ultimately faced off for the title.

"I really think that I had him figured out to an extent and I think he had me figured out some as well," Brevik said.

The two competitors took on a hard-fought battle, but in the end, Chadwick could not catch any traction and Brevik laid claim to the final pot of the event.

"It's a big deal. I've been playing poker since 2000 and I've had some decent cashes from time to time, but never in the WSOP," stated Brevik.

Along with a debut Circuit gold ring, the 47-year-old out of Bixby, Oklahoma claimed the top prize of $16,266 and 50 Casino Championship points. The purse provides him with a solid bankroll and good momentum going forward.

“I travel for work. I was planning on going out of town, but with the virus now, things have changed,” mentioned Brevik. “So, I will be playing probably some events the rest of the week and probably the Main.”
