PABLO CRUMP WINS POT LIMIT OMAHA RING EVENT

Youth soccer coach from Georgia books his biggest cash at Harrah's Cherokee Pablo Crump has taken down the sole Pot Limit Omaha World Series of Poker Circuit ring event at Harrah's Cherokee for $26,249 and a seat into the Tournament of Champions. This is his biggest career cash and first tournament win. "Awesome feeling. I just got into tournaments in the last year, so I'm thrilled to get my first," said Crump.

"In the past year I started traveling a bit more and taking it (poker) more seriously," explained the youth soccer coach from Georgia. "I'll just keep chasing rings. I like to travel to different stops and just enjoy the game."
