ALAN FELTS WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 12

Attorney from North Carolina wins the first WSOP event he entered

Alan Felts has won Event #12: $400 No-Limit Hold'em for $29,278, a gold World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a seat into the Tournament of Champions in 2022. Not only is this Felts' biggest score and first Circuit ring, it is also the first ever WSOP event he has attempted to play.

"It feels awesome! I'm really just an amateur. I've been playing since college, so the 2003 era, back when it got popular," explained Felts. The newly crowned champion is an attorney and practices civil litigation, playing poker whenever he has time.

Felts has never really thought about chasing titles in poker, but that all might change now. "It's hard for me to play as much as I want to, but hopefully this gives me some incentive," smiled Felts.
