RICHARD PARIZER WINS $400 NLH TURBO

Richard Parizer emerged victorious in the $400 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo event.

Richard Parizer just took down the $400 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo event at the Bicycle Casino World Series of Poker Circuit.

"It feels surreal. I told my friend before this that 'I feel like I'm due for a ring, I think I'm going to win this thing. I'm probably psyching myself out, like, is there really 'a day', but it was pretty cool," said the Maryland native.

Parizer, who is working in the music industry, is only playing poker recreationally and did not realize that the $400 No-limit Hold'em Turbo was a ring event until he sat down at the Table. Six hours later he was one out of nine players still left at the Final Table.

"I have been playing cards since I was five years old. My dad taught us kids and since then we have been grinding poker, playing cash games, home games and online. And this event was 150 entries, and I have beat these types of fields online before, so I felt like I had a chance," Parizer said.

Parizer eventually found himself heads-up against Las Vegas's Chad Ducharme and was able to take it down after over an hour of heads-up play.

"He had me pre-flop, ace-five against ace-jack, he had me dominated. The cards when my way, and like I said, when the deck hit you in the face you can't help but win," said the happy winner.

Parizer defeated 131 entrants on his road to victory to earn $11,680 and his first WSOP Circuit gold ring. He also earns a seat in the Tournament of Champions, held in Las Vegas in the summer of 2022.
