STEVEN CHRISTOPHER WINS 1ST WSOP CIRCUIT RING

Trader and cash game player was bored and won his first live tournament at Turning Stone

After two days of play, Steven Christopher has taken down the final World Series of Poker Circuit event at the first ever stop at Turning Stone in New York. The trader and cash game pro topped a field of 279 entries to win $32,572 and earn his biggest score.

"It feels great. I was waiting for a seat to play cash and it took a long time and so I got bored. Someone said there's a tournament running upstairs so I hopped in," explained Christopher.

The newly crowned champion mostly plays small tournaments and cash games so this was his first shot in a bigger buy-in event. He won the whole thing to book his first live tournament win as well. Christopher also earned himself an invitation to the Tournament of Champions later this year.
