ROB BOURKNEY BECOMES SECOND PLAYER AT HARRAH'S CHEROKEE TO WIN 1ST WSOP CIRCUIT RING

Bourkney secured first Circuit ring in a long-time coming.

Rob Bourkney just clenched his first WSOP Circuit ring and his largest Circuit cash for $42,410 after outlasting 706 players in Event #3: $400 No-Limit Hold'em.

"I feel great," Bourkney said with excitement after his win.

Bourkney went into the final table in the middle of the pack, sitting fifth in chips out of the final ten. Bourkney wasn't giving up any mistakes as his key to victory was patience.

"I was being very patient," Bourkney explained, "There was an older gentleman that was doing all the raising and being aggressive, so I just sat back patiently picking my spots."

One-by-one Bourkney watched his opponents depart from the final table and the heads-up match came down to one final call in which, Bourkney made with queen-high to take down the $42,410 top-prize.

The impressive call secured Bourkney his first Circuit ring which was a bittersweet feeling after coming up just shy back in 2013 when he finished runner-up at Foxwoods.
