Buy-in:	$400	Prizepool:	$34,270

LUCAS WIGGINS WINS $400 BLACK CHIP BOUNTY

Lucas Wiggins grabs first ring and $8,919 for the win.

Lucas Wiggins just emerged victorious in the $400 No-Limit Hold'em Black Chip Bounty event at the Bally's Casino World Series of Poker Circuit. The former middle school teacher Wiggins maneuvered a field of 149 entrants to earn $8,919 and his first WSOP Circuit gold ring. He also earns a seat in the Tournament of Champions, held in Las Vegas in the summer of 2022

"It feels good and relieving. I was pretty nervous because I usually don't make it this far. I usually play $1-3 cash, so this is a lot bigger than what I'm used to," Wiggins said after earning his first tournament victory.

Wiggins is born in Forth Worth, Texas, and worked as a middle school teacher before deciding to move out to Vegas to pursue his poker dream.

"I was a middle school teacher in Texas and quit that to take a shot at poker and grind low stakes. I might go back to teaching some day, but I'm just doing this for now," said the winner.

The entry field of 149 was down to 6 players when Day 1 concluded. Among the Day 1 survivors were six-time ring winner Steve Foutty, Tuan Mai, with 18 WSOP cashes, and ring winner Brandon Terry.

Foutty ended up finishing in fourth place, and Mai joined him at the rail shortly after. Wiggins eventually found himself heads-up against Terry – a battle that lasted for under 30 minutes before Wiggins could take it down.

“He was good. He applied the pressure and I felt like he ran bad while I kept flopping big hands. So yeah, he was good and I felt lucky,” said the humble winner.
