PRESTON MCEWEN TAKES HOME SECOND CIRCUIT RING AT HORSESHOE TUNICA

McEwen earns $21,775 after defeating long time friend Tyler Burke heads up.

Event #10: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Black Chip Bounty attracted a total of 227 entries and generated a prize pool of $94,205. At the end of a two-day grind, the last man standing was Preston McEwen, collecting all of the chips and earned $21,775 along with his second Career WSOP Circuit gold ring. Along with the cash and the new piece of hardware he has also earned a seat into the $1,000,000 Prize Pool 'Tournament of Champions' in Las Vegas.

"It feels great!" McEwen excitedly said after the victory, "I had a couple of close calls this week so it's nice to finally close one." Preston has been crushing the Circuit series at Horseshoe Casino, Tunica this week with three cashes already and making the final table in all three. Finishing 5th in Event #3 ($12,582), 3rd in Event #6 ($8,021) and finally this victory in Event #10 ($21,775).

"There were several really good players at the final table, so I had kind of hoped they took care of themselves early on." McEwen laughed, "luckily my friend Eric (Salazar), who's one of the most accomplished players at the table got coolered. Although it sucks to see that, it's nice as a player to have one of the more skilled players go out."

McEwen eventually landed heads up with his long-time friend Tyler Burke, "That was awesome! It was something we joked about last night, hoping it would actually happen."

McEwen had decided previous to this series that he was going to donate one-percent of all winnings to the go-fund me page for David 'Atombomb' Hendrix who is currently the oldest living person in the United States suffering from SMA (Spinal Muscular Atrophy) Type 1. The goal is to raise $20,000 to send Hendrix to the 2022 World Series of Poker. To read more or donate to the cause please click the link below.
