GAVIN MUNROE WINS HORSESHOE TUNICA'S MAIN EVENT

"The next time I play Caleb Wardrup in a game of 21 I'm going to beat him"

The three-ring club just added its newest member as Gavin Munroe is the latest Main Event champion of the 2021/2022 World Series of Poker Circuit season after he topped a field of 536 entries to walk away with the Horseshoe Tunica $1,700 Main Event title, a $158,424 top prize, and a seat into the 2022 Tournament of Champions.

"It feels really good," Munroe stated after his win, "Credit to my friends, they helped out a lot."

Munroe came into the final day with a healthy chip lead holding over one third of the chips in play and continued to until he held every chip in play as he eliminated four of his final five opponents on his way to victory.

"I had a lot of momentum last night and I kind of just wanted to play it out, but I'm happy with the way things turned out today. "

Munroe continued, "I got a text from one of my best friends Caleb Wardrup this morning. He told me to finish this thing off because the last time we played a game of 21 (Basketball), I was up 20-14 and I couldn't finish hm off, so I want him to know, the next time we play 21 I'm going to beat him."

Munroe added, "I want to give a shoutout to my boy Trace Henderson, we travel everywhere together, hone each other, and keep one another humble."

The final table dominance secured Munroe his third gold ring, his largest WSOP cash to date and a seat into the 2022 Tournament of Champions and he finished by saying, "I'm excited for the T.O.C. and am very happy I qualified."
