BLAKE BURGESS EARNS FIRST WSOP CIRCUIT RING AT HORSESHOE TUNICA

Burgess wins $14,254 after defeating field of 172 entries in Event #16.

Event #14: $400 No-Limit Hold'em was the final event of the Horseshoe Casino, Tunica WSOP Circuit and it was Blake Burgess who claimed victory. Burgess outlasted a field of 172 entries, and claimed his first WSOP Circuit gold ring, along with $14,254 and a seat into the $1,000,000 Prize Pool 'Tournament of Champions' in Las Vegas.

"I feel awesome!" Exclaimed Burgess. "I wasn't even going to play any events, but my buddy told me they had a turbo. I figured that wouldn't take very long, so I said, 'let me get down there and jump in it'."

Burgess isn't your typical tournament grinder as he typically just plays cash games locally, "this is my home casino. I just grind for fun in cash games."
