STUART MOODY WINS 2ND WSOP CIRCUIT RING AT CHEROKEE

Poker player from North Carolina books biggest career cash on his home turf

After playing 16 hours of poker, Stuart Moody took down Event #1: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Double Stack for $35,214 in the opening tournament at Harrah's Cherokee. This is Moody's second gold World Series of Poker Circuit ring and the biggest cash of his tournament career. "Some people say the first one (ring) is luck and the second one proves it," laughed Moody.

The retiree from North Carolina plays as many Circuit stops as possible, but especially enjoys playing at his home casino where he has won two rings. "I call myself a second generation poker player. Kids moved out, I've got time, I've got the money, I'm playing the old school poker coming back," explained Moody.

The two-time WSOP Circuit champion credits vlogs and books when working on his game and keeping up in a time where there are many training sites and players are studying more. "It's more to learn what other people are doing so I can counter it."
