JOSHUA VANHOOSE WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING AT CHEROKEE

Retiree and avid poker player fulfills his dream of winning a WSOP Circuit ring

Event #5: $600 No-Limit Hold'em is in the books and the winner is Joshua VanHoose for $43,181, his first gold World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a seat into the Tournament of Champions in July 2023.

"It feels good," smiled VanHoose. The newly crowned champion works in a factory but when he isn't working he's playing poker. "I play every week. Any day I'm not working I'm playing cash." This is VanHoose's fourth career cash, first tournament win and his biggest cash by almost 20 times.

"Before I played poker I used to play rook all the time, and you've gotta remember what cards have been played in rook. Then I started playing poker in a basement with a bunch of friends, so I've been playing for quite a while," explained VanHoose. Now that he can check a WSOP ring off his list, VanHoose has his sights on winning a gold bracelet.
