RUSSELL BROOKS WINS EVENT 13 AT CHEROKEE

Poker pro from Atlanta wins first ever WSOP Circuit ring

Event #13: $400 No-Limit Hold'em is in the books and Russell Brooks has taken it down for $30,623, a gold World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a seat into the Tournament of Champions in 2023. This is the poker pro's first WSOP Circuit ring. "It feels great, it hasn't really sunk in yet."

Brooks has been playing poker for about eight years and is now grinding poker for a living. His only goal now is "just keep grinding and win some more tournaments." This is his second final table this week, and there will surely be more in the future.

When talking about bettering his game, Brooks prefers to talk through hands with friends. "Talk through spots with people that are better than you. I use some coaching sites, but mostly talk through hands."
