

JOIN THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER TEAM THIS SUMMER

Have a passion for poker and want to experience the action of the industry's largest annual event this summer in Las Vegas?

The World Series of Poker wants to give you a front row seat to the action. Literally you will be working inside the tournament ropes reporting on and covering the action for the official live reporting team of the 47th Annual World Series of Poker (WSOP).

The WSOP is looking for Live Reporting staffers to join its media team for the 2016 WSOP. We seek strong writers who are knowledgeable and passionate about the game of poker.

This assignment requires your services from May 31, 2016 to July 18 where you will be working from the tournament floors of the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada.

To apply: Send resume and cover letter (1 page maximum) to Rob Kirschen at rkirschen@caesars.com.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as the eyes and ears for the fans and players alike by reporting on the play, chip counts, and storylines coming from the event floor.
- Post updates, chip counts, and other information to the official website of the WSOP – WSOP.com, giving millions of readers real-time updates of WSOP events.
- Support and facilitate the work of other aspects of our coverage, including photography, video, and live streaming.

Requirements:

- Must be at least 21 years of age
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English
- Understanding of poker as a game and knowledge of the poker community
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- Ability to work under pressure
- A reliable laptop computer
